

Guest Speaker Biography

Nancy Laine
Co-Founder & President
Project Transition USA

Nancy Laine has been a LinkedIn member since 2006 and finally woke up to its potential in 2008 when an important new consulting client found her there (and continues to hire her to this day!) It was her love for making friends with fascinating people that eventually led her to becoming the LinkedIn expert she is today.

Nancy's professional network now includes business celebrities and world leaders. She has helped thousands of people learn to harness the power of LinkedIn and is the Co-Founder and President of Project Transition USA, a 501c3 non-profit dedicated to helping transitioning military and veterans find civilian careers worthy of their talents.

Nancy's presentation style is informative and entertaining. It is littered with real life stories of how she and others have formed exciting new alliances with influential people around the world, and how you too can use LinkedIn to maximize your full potential.
