

Guest Speaker Biography

Robin Schauseil
President
NACM National

Robin Schauseil is President of the National Association of Credit Management. Robin began her NACM career in 1988 as the Convention Director, and was promoted to Vice President of Education in 1994.

As Executive Vice President, she worked with many of NACM's national committees along with supporting and advancing the mission and vision of the National Board.

She was named President of the Association in March 2002. Before joining NACM, Robin worked for a political consulting firm on Capitol Hill and prior to that, served on the staff of Aviation Week & Space Technology magazine, a McGraw-Hill publication. She holds a BS from Georgetown University.